INVESTOR CONFERENCES (UK) LTD

EMAIL MARKETING OPTIONS

A unique database, created organically, through live educational investor and trading events (since 2010).

Investor Conferences (UK) Ltd founded and organises the annual London Investor Show, Sustainable & Social Investing Conference, and London Trader Show events. Established in 2010, the email database has been built over this period and comprises previous delegates (opted-in) from events since inception. The list is current, clean and regularly receives new additions as delegates register for events.

The database is fully GDPR-compliant - allowing previously opted-in delegates, the opportunity to unsubscribe with every single email.

The email database is loyal, responsive to relevant messages and has a strong, trustworthy relationship with Investor Conferences, lending an element of support to messages accepted for distribution.

The full dataset of includes nearly 23,000 delegates to all events. This includes delegates to all events, webinar attendees and enquiries - a combination of medium/long term private investors and shorter term, active traders.
